

VINTAGE VAULT COLLECTION

★ DECADE 1960s || LIMITED EDITION ★

FEATURING ART AND DESIGNS FROM THE UNIQUE DECADES OF IU'S RICH HISTORY.

Hoosiers make use of the world-renowned Bloomington limestone quarries for more leisurely endeavors.

FIGHTIN' HOOSIERS

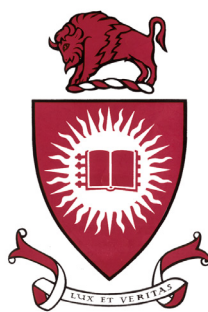

The IU Bison's "Fightin' Hoosiers" take the field, for the glory of Old IU!

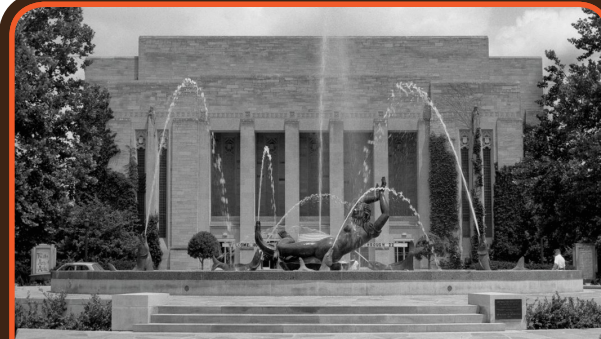

1959-1965
Ox the bulldog, IU football's mascot.

A bird's eye view from 1966 featuring several of IU's new campus buildings.

1961
The heraldry of IU is commemorated with the University Coat of Arms.

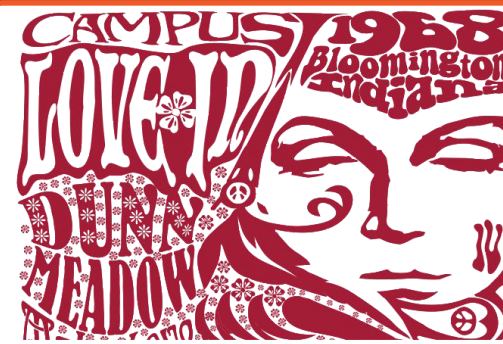

Showalter Fountain graces the newly created IU Fine Arts Square in the 1961.

HURRYIN' HOOSIERS

Branch McCracken's "Hurryin' Hoosiers" lace up their "Chucks" and burn up the hardwood.

1959-1965
Ox the bulldog, IU football's mascot.

Dunn Meadow is designated as IU's official home for open speech and debate.
Peace, love, and IU!

A new decade from the IU Vintage Vault will debut at the start of every school year, beginning in the 2011/2012 academic year with a celebration of the 1960s. The images above provide a small sampling of the personalities, locations, and visuals that defined this historic era at Indiana University.

Whether it takes you on a walk down memory lane or leads to new discoveries from IU's storied history, we truly hope you enjoy the Indiana University Vault Collection!

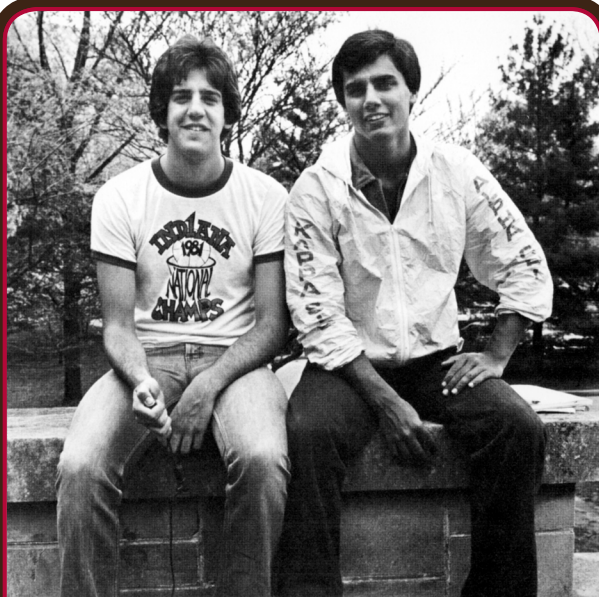

For more information visit us at:
<http://iu.licensing.indiana.edu/vintage>

INDIANA UNIVERSITY VINTAGE VAULT

★ 1980s COLLECTION || LIMITED EDITION #2 ★

FEATURING ART AND DESIGNS FROM THE UNIQUE DECADES OF IU'S RICH HISTORY.

IU fans celebrate the Hoosiers 4th National Championship in Men's basketball

Coach Knight and the 1986-87 Hoosiers defeated Syracuse 74-73 to clinch Indiana's 5th national title in New Orleans, LA.

Martha the "Mop Lady"

Coach Mallory led the IU Football team to the 1986 All-American Bowl, the 1987 Peach Bowl and the 1988 Liberty Bowl.

Coach Jerry Yeagley lead the IU Men's Soccer team to 6 national championships from 1973-2003.

Sample Gates was erected in 1987 and has become one of the Bloomington campus's most iconic images.

A new decade from the IU Vintage Vault will debut at the start of every school year. The images above provide a small sampling of the personalities, locations, and visuals that defined this historic era at Indiana University.

Whether it takes you on a walk down memory lane or leads to new discoveries from IU's storied history, we truly hope you enjoy the Indiana University Vault Collection!

For more information visit us at:
<http://iu.licensing.indiana.edu/vintage>

